
Web Development Intern

POLICE TECHNICAL (Terre Haute, IN) a solutions and training provider for law enforcement seeks an intern to assist with web development for various national projects for governmental projects.

- Short term needs: Work closely with the web development team to create applications, websites, and other web assets.
- Long term needs: Develop future applications and websites to benefit clients

Ideal Candidate will have (at a minimum):

- Currently enrolled college student or Graduate
 - Computer Science, or Computer Information Science preferred
 - Internships are available for current students
- Knowledge in the following programming areas/schemas:
 - WORDPRESS
 - PHP, Javascript
 - Bootstrap / CSS / CSS3
 - HTML / HTML 5
- An Understanding of:
 - SQL with MySQLi Interface
 - AJAX, JSON, XML, Node.js
- Experience in:
 - Editing capability and Front End design
 - Database integration and Back End design

The Candidate we hire will:

- Assist in the development process of creating and enhancing web products
- Build applications and websites within the WordPress environment.
- Bring new ideas about software, coding and development to our team.
- Be an admirable, inspiration to the other members of our team. We are still a startup company. We need greatness (or at least the potential for greatness) in everyone we hire.

Schedule and Compensation:

Part-time / Full-Time. Flexible hours. Remuneration commensurate with ability and experience. POLICE TECHNICAL will support personnel to obtain college credit for their efforts via work based internship program. (CS 699 - Computer Science Internship)

About POLICE TECHNICAL

POLICE TECHNICAL, located in downtown Terre Haute since 2005, provides technical training to law enforcement in more than 20 locations throughout the United States.

Primary subject areas include: Analytics and Intelligence, Applied Applications, Cell Phone Investigations, New Technology, Online Investigations and Unmanned Aerial Systems.

How to Apply:

Persons interested in this project/position are encouraged to email: Letter of Interest and Resume to:

Thomas M. Manson
tmanson@policetechnical.com